5 August 2024

EWPA congratulates Suzie Steiger on 20 years of service.

Engineered Wood Products Association of Australasia (EWPA) staff have paid tribute to valued employee Suzie Steiger after 20 years of impactful service.

Suzie Steiger is employed as the Timber Testing Centre's (TTC) General Manager, leading TTC's timber testing laboratory activities, and EWPA Operations Manager, coordinating essential accreditation and certification activities, and reached the impressive milestone on the 2 August 2024. Suzie started work with EWPA in 2004 and has seen significant change and growth over the 20 years, in both her work roles and the organisation's activities.

EWPA CEO Gavin Matthew acknowledged Suzie's ongoing commitment and tireless efforts to ensuring EWPA and TTC are successful and leading timber product certification and testing in Australasia.

"Suzie is a dedicated employee who inspires us all," said Gavin. "She has a great work ethic and real attention to detail that is essential in providing high-quality timber product certification and testing activities."

Over 20 years and multiple roles, Suzie has demonstrated a passion for timber and our industry, and a willingness to provide industry with the benefit of her expert knowledge. EWPA joins with industry to congratulate Suzie on 20 years of impactful service to our renewable sector.

The milestone was marked by a special lunch on Friday 2 August 2024.
